PROGRAM

CELEBRATING THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF
Dr. Mohammad Ali Modjtahedi
4 • 19 • 2009 • UCLA

Dr. Mohammad Ali Modjtahedi (Sept. 23, 1908 - July 1, 1997) was a lifetime educator, highly respected university professor, and the cherished principal of the prestigious Alborz High School in Tehran, Iran. He was also the founding President of the Sharif University of Technology (originally Aryamehr Technical University) and Chancellor of Tehran Polytechnic University (currently Amirkabir University of Technology).

"Progress of any country is highly influenced by the education of its youth."

"Value each others' opinions and put in use your collective talent pool."

"A prosperous society flourishes through its keen focus on justice."
